It seems as though the reason Microsoft is on trial has been forgotten. Plain and simple Microsoft is a Monopoly and action needs to be taken to stop them from continuing to play that roll. Do not allow Microsoft to bribe their way out of this.

The previous solution of breaking Microsoft into separate companies seemed to be more on track. What happened to that line of thinking? Was it clouded by money that Microsoft was throwing around?

Please do what needs to be done. Justice needs to be served.
